

The Explorer And The Bear

So close, I can almost hear him calling out my name
So close, pretty soon my life won't ever be the same
Nobody guessed that an explorer and a bear
Could be the perfect pair

So close, I can almost see him open up the door
This hat tells him I'm the one that he's been waiting for He'll share all his stories until his throat is hoarse
So, I'll make him a sandwich, marmalade of course

He'll show me things I've never seen, where I've never been
There's no greater team out there
And when the two of us combine
All the stars will shine
You won't ever find a pair
That compares to the explorer and the bear

So close, I can't wait to tell Aunt Lucy he's been found
Though I'll find it hard to say goodbye to all the girls
They have shown me what it's like to have a home
But now, it's time for me to find one of my own

I don't know where he's hiding
But I know that I'll find him
And then, we'll be just like a family
He'll say, "Let's stay together
All day, always whatever the weather
This way forever and ever"
That's when I'll belong somewhere

He'll show me things I've never seen
Where I've never been
There's no greater team out there
And when the two of us combine, all the stars will shine
You won't ever find a pair

There will be laughter in the air
He'll be glad I'm there
Nothing can compare to the explorer and the bear
